From the author's website: "Wolfsbane is a tightly-coupled sequel to Masques, and won't make much sense by itself. Other than Wolfsbane, this is a loosely-woven series, and the books can be read in any order. They share the same world, but each book is a stand-alone story with its own cast of characters." Book 1

Sianim Series by Patricia Briggs - Goodreads

Masques was the first book she wrote. It didn't sell very well and went out of print in 1995. Wolfsbane, its' sequel, was written without a publisher and sat on a shelf for a while. After becoming successful (Mercy Thompson and Alpha and Omega), the author was able to do a polish of Masques and include the sequel in this edition.

Sianim - Book Series In Order

Welcome to the world of Aralorn and Wolf, and the early mind of Patricia Briggs. Originally published in 1993 in a less polished format, Masques was Briggs' first book, and there's a lovely introduction by the author in my Kindle version that explains its inception and eventual resurrection. I hope it exists in the paperback version, as well.

Wolfsbane by Patricia Briggs is the sequel to her book Masques. I do think it's important to read Masques first. There's a lot of interplay between the main characters which relies on a knowledge of all that came before, in the first book. In Wolfsbane we know that Aralorn and Wolf are in love with each other.
